'The Fix' -- Only One Aspect Of Gambling

(EDITOR'S NOTE — Grand jury disclosures of bribe-taking by college basketball players are shocking the public for the second time in ten years. And "the fix" in college basketball is only one by-product of a gigantic operation whose branches touch practically every American sport.)

By BERNARD GAVZER

NEW YORK, June 24 (AP) — The banquet was set. It would be like most banquets. Fruit compote at the start. Parfait at the end. Then the speeches. And then — the guest of honor: Jack Egan, high-scoring ace of St. Joseph's of Philadelphia.

The banquet went on, without Egan. He wasn't disinvited. No one had to tell him not to come.

Earlier in the day — it was April 27 — he was listed among 12 college basketball players named as bribe-takers.

The basketball scandal has grown since. Now more than 30 players from 17 colleges and universities from coast to coast are involved. And before the New York Grand Jury term expires June 30, there may be more.

There was shock and dismay at these disclosures. Ten years before, 33 players from seven schools were involved in a similar black era of basketball. Corrective steps were supposedly taken. Now once again the "fix," by-product of organized gambling, richest racket in America.

$46 Billion A Year

In a single year, $46 billion is bet in America — more money than is appropriated for our defense budget. The gross profit to racketeers of $9 billion is greater than the 1959 sales of the nation's seven largest department stores plus the three largest mail order houses.

There are many forms of gambling, but the big play is in sports.

In the average mind, bigtime gambling is connected with horse racing. The billions of dollars pouring through the pari-mutuels, the record crowds at the tracks, the newspaper columns of racing information build up the picture.

But this is only a thin slice of the whole gambling pie.

"Illegal gambling on horse racing alone comes to $9 billion a year," says Milton R. Wessel, New York corporation lawyer who headed the attorney general's now-defunct special group on organized crime. "There's far more gambling on baseball and football, than horse racing."

Wessel provides this table:

GROSS GAMBLING

|---|---|
| Baseball | $13.5 billion |
| Football | $12 billion |
| Racing | $9 billion |
| Basketball | $7 billion |
| Policy (numbers) | $4 billion |
| Fights-hockey | $1 billion |

How does Wessel, or anyone else for that matter, know what the action is?

There are no pari-mutuels on betting with bookies.

The basis of the estimates is horse race betting. Studies of countries where off-track betting is legal show that $2 to $5 is bet off-track for every $1 on track. Professional gamblers figure it's at least 4 to 1. Wessel used 3 to 1 ratio, and so deduces from the legal American pari-mutuel handle of $3 billion a year there must be $9 billion bet illegally.

Wessel says raids and investigations indicate baseball gambling is 50 per cent higher than racing; football one-third more; basketball about the same.

Protection money also is an indicator. Says Wessel:

"Half the gross profits of illegal gambling go to police and politicians for protection."

Monthly Protection

Congressman Adam Clayton Powell, the Harlem politician-preacher, created a sensation with floor speeches in which he itemized the payoffs to police, saying that each policy banker paid off from $2,500 to $3,500 monthly for protection. In one section of Harlem, there were 90 policy spots, making an annual payoff of $2.5 million.

A protected telephone — the business lifeline for a bookie — once cost about $1,500 a month. Now, according to insiders, it's $1,200 a week.

Any business which can afford such overheads obviously is immense and powerful.

Then there are the "layoff" and "comeback" operations. A bookie with heavy betting on one team or horse would take a beating if it won. So he "lays off" some of it with a bigger bookie, who may in turn go to still bigger operators who can take a bet of $500,000 without flinching.

"Comeback" Operation

The big center of "layoff" is Kentucky's Newport-Covington area, which also happens to be the center of the "comeback" operation. This is the means by which the big-time pros can control pari-mutuel odds.

Say a certain horse is getting a lot of play at 5-1. The comeback boys dump thousands of dollars in to the pari-mutuels at the last moment and may bring the odds down to 3-1. If the horse wins, the bookie's payoff is smaller. Not only that, his boys also collect at the track. It's a form of insurance.

But there doesn't seem to be much insurance against the always potential threat of the fixer. This is the guy who tries to set up a sure thing.

Says a bookie — a small potatoes operator — but a successful one:

"I don't get my line direct, but there were rumors a long time ago on a fix in basketball. When I'd get the line, they'd say it was 'in a box.' This means there's something fishy. If I knew which way it was going, I'd clean up myself by laying off somewhere if I could, or putting a lid on bets. There are a lot of things you can do if you're in."

Two of the men indicted in the current basketball scandal are described as professional gamblers. One is Joseph Hacken, 49, of Manhattan, and the other, Aaron Wagman, 28, of the Bronx. Wagman already is under five-year sentence in Florida for trying to bribe a college football player.

Dist. Atty. Frank Hogan, who broke open the scandal on St. Patrick's Day, said bribes ranged between $500 and $1,000. Two St. John's of New York players got $4,450 each for cooperating during two seasons. Thousands of dollars were involved.

How did the fixers get players to go along? They convinced them that this was just spending money, that they wouldn't be letting down their schools by shaving points. Shaving points is not the same as throwing a game, they said.

Sugar Ray Wants New Chance At World Middleweight Title

NEW YORK, June 24 (AP) — Sugar Ray Robinson at the age of 40 wants another chance to win the world middleweight boxing title. He weighs 161 pounds, a pound over the class limit. While admitting he was anxious to retire from the ring, Robinson said his pride would not allow him to do so until he was a titleholder again.

He wants to fight Gene Fullmer, the National Boxing Association middleweight champion, or Paul Pender, recognized as champion in New York State and Massachusetts and in Europe.

Robinson last fought on March 4, losing a 15-round decision to Fullmer.

"Pender is supposed to fight Terry Downes in England soon," Robinson said. "I'd also be willing to take on Downes if he beats him."

The former welterweight and middleweight champion said he had lost interest in a bout with Archie Moore, who holds a share of the light-heavyweight title.

"I invited Archie to dinner at my house quite a while ago and offered him $750,000 for the fight," Robinson said. "Both he and his wife were very enthusiastic and I went out and sold the fight for a million and a half (dollars). Then he changed his mind and went off to fight in Canada. Now he can forget it."

Robinson said he could get in shape for a fight in two months. In the meantime, his various business enterprises are keeping him busy.

These include a bar, a realty concern, a television production company and the Robinson Entertainment Corp., which sells stocks to the public and invests in Broadway shows.

Banks Drops Out, May Have Surgery

CHICAGO, June 24 (UPI) — Slugger Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs removed himself from the lineup yesterday but postponed until next week a decision whether to undergo a knee operation.

Banks' action halted his current consecutive game appearance at 717 games.

Banks, who only once before in his career with the Cubs was absent from the lineup, learned Thursday that a loose cartilage in his left knee was the cause of repeated swellings and pains. Dr. Arthur Metz, Cubs physician, said surgery would be required.

Reds Boost Lead

walks that loaded the bases, came off reliefer Larry Sherry.

Stan Musial drove in seven runs with a pair of homers — one a grand slam — for the Cards, who broke a 5-5 tie on Julio Gotay's single in the seventh.

The last place Phils, who had lost seven in a row and trailed 11-2 after seven innings, blasted the Pirates with four runs in the eighth and six in the ninth. Four of the ninth inning runs were unearned.

Come From Behind

The Cubs came from behind with two runs in the eighth inning, scoring on Bob Wills' pinch single and an infield out, and ended the Braves winning streak at four.

Detroit bagged 15 hits, four of them homers, while handing third place Cleveland a fifth straight defeat. The Indians have given up 41 runs in their last three games.

Harmon Killebrew drove in all four Minnesota runs, two with his 20th home run, off Bob Turley.

Consecutive doubles by Al Smith and Jim Landis did it for the White Sox in the eighth inning, beating Joe McClain.

The Red Sox broke up Krausse's shutout string at 15 innings with a three-run homer by Gary Geiger in the seventh. The $125,000 bonus right-hander had pitched a three-hit shutout over Los Angeles last Friday in his only other start.

Baltimore blew a 4-0 lead but beat the Angels on a two-run homer in the fifth by Gus Triandos.

Midas Launching Boosts Satellite Total To 48

POINT ARGUELLO, Calif., July 13 (UPI) — A Midas satellite whirled 1,850 miles above earth today to help protect the United States from sneak missile attack.

The launching of the Midas "watchdog" satellite was one-half of yesterday's double-header space success for the United States, coming five hours after the Tiros III weather eye satellite was fired into orbit from Cape Canaveral.

Midas — short for Missile Defense Alarm System — made the earth satellite box score: the United States 48, Russia 13.

Midas' record high path over the North and South Poles carried its infra-red rocket-hunting payload over every spot on earth at one time or another — including Russia.

Hard Luck String

Midas III, launched in blanket fog after two unsuccessful tries, broke a string of hard luck that had dogged the first two Midases.

Its main purpose was to test infra-red gear to detect missiles on firing and telegraph an instant warning. The 30-foot satellite added two records to the United States's missile log:

- It was the heaviest U.S. satellite yet when it was launched atop an Atlas missile.
- The circle-shaped orbit it achieved was the highest so far, surpassing a mark set early in the Discoverer program.

The Air Force, obviously concerned over Russia's reaction to Midas regularly scanning its territory, said it would have no further word on the progress of the 3,500-pound satellite.

Just how often the Midas crosses the Soviet Union was not known, but it already has passed over the Kremlin at least once.

It whizzes around the world at 18,000 miles an hour once every two hours and 40 minutes. That's nine times around the world every day.

TUESDAY SPACE SHOT

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla., July 13 (UPI) — The two men who will follow astronaut Alan B. Shepard into space atop a Redstone rocket began final preparations yesterday for America's second and third manned space flights.

Marine Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr. and Air Force Capt. Virgil I. Grissom are getting daily workouts in a spaceship "simulator" on the Cape while scientists keep an hourly check on their physical condition.

If all goes as planned, one will get his chance next Tuesday morning to follow in the footsteps of America's first astronaut, Navy Cmdr. Shepard — to soar about 115 miles into space inside a one-ton Mercury capsule aboard a Redstone.

For the other, a chance at a trip into space probably will be a matter of waiting just a few weeks longer. If nothing goes wrong with the Tuesday shot, the U.S. space agency is expected to try its third "suborbital" manned spaceflight late next month or early in September.

Famed Piccadilly Becomes 1-Way

LONDON, July 13 (AP) — Piccadilly, London's most famous thoroughfare, will be turned into a one-way street next Saturday.

Traffic authorities said the new regulations will continue on a trial basis for a week. Only eastbound vehicles will be allowed along the busiest part of Piccadilly.

It is part of a wider experiment in restoring a reasonable flow of traffic through downtown London, which at rush hours these days, tends to become a huge involuntary parking lot.

Sylvia Diets To Freedom

WALLA WALLA, Wash., July 13 (AP)—Like many another 19-year-old girl, Sylvia Elaine Sannar was on a diet. But Sylvia had a different purpose in mind than most.

Yesterday guards at the Washington State Penitentiary found out what it was. Miss Sannar scaled down from 100 pounds to 85, had slipped through a seven by ten-inch opening and escaped the night before.

The young woman, who is five-feet eight inches tall, had been in the penitentiary since March for burglary.

AFL Club Owners Propose Appealing Rules Changes

BUFFALO, N.Y., July 17 (UPI) — American Football League club owners, convinced that prosperous days are ahead for their young loop, recently took up some proposed rules changes designed to have greater appeal for spectators.

One rule almost certain to be adopted would provide for a "sudden-death" overtime period to decide games tied at the end of regulation play. The owners were said to favor this by a 6 to 2 margin.

Two other proposals, presented by president Harry Wismer of the New York Titans, faced tougher going.

One suggested change would eliminate the fair catch on punts, requiring downfield tacklers to remain five yards from the punt receiver until he catches the ball. The other change would require that kickoffs into the end zone be rushed out by the receiving team, instead of downed for an automatic touchback.

The cheery note of "prosperity around the corner" was sounded by commissioner Joe Foss at a news conference following the opening day of the league's summer meetings.

Foss noted that advanced ticket sales in the new pro league were running approximately 70 per cent ahead of last season and that the AFL was on sounder financial footing than at any time since it was founded in the fall of 1959.

The league lost an estimated $2,500,000 during its maiden 1960 season.

"In our first year of operation our prestige has come up considerably," Foss said. "And it continues to rise as a result of our national exposure in a short time of operation."

Foss said that the Buffalo Bills and Denver Broncos already were far ahead of last pre-season's ticket-selling pace.

Calvin Kunz, new president of the Broncos, said his club has sold 3,400 season tickets thus far, or about 800 more than during the entire 1960 season.

The commissioner said he had been approached by at least 10 groups seeking to buy existing clubs or start new franchises in the AFL.

Foss said he told these groups it would take $1 million to start a new club.

"They were not discouraged and all are still on my list of prospective franchise owners," Foss said.

Toledo University To Host Tourney

TOLEDO, Ohio, July 17 (AP) — International wrestling's top event, the world championships, will be held in Toledo next June, it was announced.

Joe Scalzo, University of Toledo wrestling coach and a member of the International Amateur Wrestling Federation (IAWF), said he was notified of Toledo's selection in a cable from Roger Coulon of Paris.

It will be the first time the championships will be held in the United States.

The championships will be June 11-17 at the University of Toledo. More than 200 of the world's top wrestlers, including many from Iron Curtain countries, are expected to compete in both the free-style and Greco-Roman events.

U. S. Men Triumph

started with the bar at 2 meters. Brumel started when it was upped to 2.05.

After Avant and Shavlakadze had dropped out, Brumel and Thomas continued their struggle. Light rain began to fall as they began their assault on the 2.19 meter height. Both skipped the next stage—2.21—and asked for 2.24, the undisputed world record mark. The rainfall increased and conditions rapidly worsened.

Thomas made three unsuccessful attempts and Brumel failed in two. Then, with the stadium hushed, the Russian slid over on his third crack and the record was his.

Thomas said later, "I said before the match that if Brumel was going to beat me, he would have to break a world record to do it. Well, he did it. But I'll do it too. I had no excuses. I felt as good today as I've ever felt."

Another world record went in the broad jump, where Ralph Boston cleared 8.28 meters in beating out Russia's Igor Ter-Ovanesyan, Europe's number one.

CLUBS KEEP CHECKBOOKS HANDY

Bonuses Are Worthwhile--Sometimes

DICK GROAT

LINDY McDANIEL

. . . didn't earn his

NEW YORK, July 18 (AP)—Baseball bonus payments are worthwhile when players such as Harmon Killebrew, Sandy Koufax, Al Kaline and Dick Groat are on the receiving end.

These four coupled with Mike McCormick, Robin Roberts, Lindy McDaniel, Curt Simmons, Harvey Kuenn and Johnny Antonelli are excellent reasons why major league ball clubs are dishing out kingsized bonuses to untested youngsters.

It's also dollars to doughnuts that many among the scores of bonus babies signed this season will erid up in the scrap heap — the same one into which have fallen such $50,000-$100,000 failures as Paul Giel, Billy Consolo, Paul Pettit and Billy Joe Davidson.

But it's the success of the Killebrews and the Koufaxes that make it mandatory for the scouts to work full time and the clubs to keep their checkbooks handy.

Killebrew, who got $50,000 to sign with Washington in 1954, found the range with the Senators in 1959, hitting 42 homers to tie for the American League lead. He walloped 31 last year and this season he's already had 27 homers to go with a sparkling .352 batting average for the Minnesota Twins.

It has taken six years for Koufax to start paying big dividends on the $25,000 bonus given him by the Dodgers in 1955. He has a 12-3 record and leads the National League in strikeouts. The fireballing lefty had only 36 victories before this season.

Both Kaline and Groat are hitting well below their lifetime marks this year, but it's certain their clubs are not ready to ask them for refunds. Groat got a reported $40,000 bonus from Pittsburgh in 1952 and Kaline received $35,000 from Detroit in 1953. Kaline, who has a lifetime average of .306, is hitting .286 in 1961. Groat, the National's batting champ last season, has a .272 mark this year.

McCormick got $60,000 from the Giants and McDaniel, $50,000 from the Cardinals. McCormick won 15 games in 1960 and has eight victories this season. McDaniel, one of the game's top relievers, posted a 12-4 record last year, and is 3-3 in 1961.

The Phils shelled out $65,000 for Roberts in 1948. Simmons won 115 games for his benefactors before they released him last year. He's now 2-6 with St. Louis. Roberts, now 1-8 this season, nevertheless has picked up 234 triumph for Philadelphia including six 20-victory campaigns.

Kuenn, who was given a $55,000 bonus by Detroit, batted over .300 in six of his seven seasons with the Tigers. He's now with San Francisco. Southpaw Antonelli, now with Cleveland, was no ball of fire for the Braves from whom he received a bonus of $60,000 in 1948. But he won 20 games twice for the New York Giants.

Loi To Fight Christensen August 5 As Promoters, RAI Reach Agreement

MILAN, July 17 (AP) — Organizers yesterday confirmed Duilio Loi of Italy will defend his European welterweight boxing title against challenger Christian Christensen of Denmark at St. Vincent, Italy, on Aug. 5.

The 15-round bout will be televised.

Thursday night the match seemed headed towards a new postponement because of difficulties between the organizers and RAI, the Italian state radio-TV company which has the monopoly of radio and television broadcasts in Italy.

But today the organizers announced that, all difficulties being settled, there will be no postponement.

According to the organizers, the Danish fighter already sent his full agreement to the set date of Aug. 5.

Christensen, the boxing promoters said, will arrive in Italy a few days before the match.

Use Force If Necessary, Says De Gaulle

rebel cooperation to lead the area to self-determination and eventual freedom.

The President summed up the Algerian problem in three points:

(1) The establishment of an Algerian state.

(2) The relations of France with this state.

(3) The future of the Sahara.

The President said an Algerian state could arise only from self-determination and a free vote of its inhabitants "because an Algerian sovereignty does not exists as was the case in Tunisia and Morocco."

BONN IS PLEASED

BONN, Sept. 5 (AP)—Government officials in Bonn today welcomed President De Gaulles statements on the Berlin and German problems.

Officials said they fully supported De Gaulle's warnings directed against Premier Khrushchev and agreed with him that the West must now show utmost firmness.

700 Enroll At Moscow

MOSCOW, Sept. 5 (UPI) — Seven hundred students from nearly 70 countries have been accepted by the preparatory department of Moscow's Patrice Lumumba Friendship University this year, the official Soviet news agency Tass said.

Russia Denounces

Union and the West.

"The U.S. and British representatives," it said, "made a widely advertised proposal to conclude an agreement on the discontinuance of experimental explosions in the atmosphere.

"They admit thereby the possibility of carrying out explosions underground and at high altitudes.

"This is not a new proposal. For a long time the governments of the Western powers have been trying to obtain the right to perfect their thermo-nuclear weapons by carrying out underground explosions.

"Only universal and total disarmament, stressed the Soviet delegate, can solve the question of nuclear tests."

The Geneva talks have been bogged down since their outset by Soviet refusal to accept a workable system of international policing to prevent clandestine nuclear weapons tests and stockpiling.

There has so far been no official Moscow reaction to the Kennedy-Macmillan offer. Deadline for accepting the offer is Saturday.

South Africa To Open 8 Immigration Offices

PRETORIA, Sept. 5 (AP) — The South African government has announced establishment of eight immigration offices in Britain and Europe to recruit new settlers.

The offices will be in London, Glasgow, The Hague, Cologne, Rome, Athens, Vienna and Lisbon.

Sheepish Russian Colonel

East Berlin.

It appeared to be a uncomfortable meeting for the Russian because of a propaganda foulup by the East German Communists. They put out through their official news agency the day before the meeting actually took place an account of what Solovyev supposed to have said.

When the stocky Solovyev, whose head is completely shaved, turned up for the meeting in Gen. Watson's headquarters he appeared somewhat embarrassed. He made a sheepish and oblique reference to the premature news story by observing he expected Gen. Watson knew what he had come to talk about, informants said.

The American statement said Solovyev's remarks "followed in general the broad lines . . . of the premature press release."

The premature East German version had Solovyev lecturing Watson on the need to show respect to the East German authorities.

GIs USE TEAR GAS

BERLIN, Sept. 5 (UPI)—American soldiers used tear gas grenades early today for the first time since they were ordered up to the East-West Berlin border two weeks ago.

A U.S. jeep patrol of an officer and two enlisted men lobbed two or six tear gas grenades across the Iron Curtain after Communist police doused the Americans with water from a fire hose hooked to a hydrant.

"There's been no water from the other side since," reported Lt. Col. Wayne M. Winder, commanding the Berlin Command's third armored group.

But late this afternoon, Communist police used their hose to wash down a Western photographer on the same point along the Iron Curtain that the tear gas incident took place.

The hosing stopped, however, as soon as an American jeep patrol appeared.

384 Traffic Deaths Counted Over Holiday

CHICAGO, Sept. 5 (UPI) — Highway traffic carnage slowed to a crawl today in the waning hours of the Labor Day holiday.

With final reports still arriving, the count showed 384 traffic deaths. An additional 146 persons met violent death by drowning, or in boating, plane or miscellaneous mishaps.

bolding him incommunicado for more than a month and sentencing him in a secret trial.

Replying to Russian charges that Makinen confessed to espionage, Department spokesman told newsmen, "I think we've had cases instances of so-called confessions there. I do not place any great importance or worth to them."

Makinen's arrest July 27 was announced only yesterday by Tass, the Soviet news agency. It said the young tourist, formerly a student at West Berlin University, was recruited by "American intelligence in Berlin and drove from Berlin through Hungary, Czechoslovakia and the Ukraine.

It said he was arrested while taking pictures of a Soviet military installation in the Ukraine.

Izvestia said the prosecution produced "documentary evidence" of Mackinen's guilt — including eight rolls of film and a notebook allegedly found in the young American's money belt.
