

U.S. Offers New Plan At Sea Talks

GENEVA, March 24 (UPI) — The United States offered a plan for a new sea law today, giving coastal states six miles of territorial waters.

U.S. Delegate Arthur Dean, speaking in the sea law conference committee session, called the six-mile plan "a genuine concession toward international agreement."

He said the United States plan would also give coastal states main fishing rights in a further six-mile zone, but with consideration of the rights of states which had traditionally fished off other states coasts.

'Historic Rights'

Dean said that states exercising such "historical rights" would limit their fishing in other states over six-mile zones to the average limit of the five-year period ending Jan. 1, 1958.

The fishing clause goes further than anything the United States proposed at the first sea law conference in 1958.

But whether it would lead to compromise with an expected Canadian plan for abolishment of historical rights remained to be seen.

Only through such compromise, observers believe, does the present conference have a real chance for success.

LANCE, AND HIS BRIDE-TO-BE JILL

Lance, Jill Wed In Wake Of Expensive Gift Swapping

SAN FRANCISCO, March 24 (AP) — Lance Reventlow, a young man with just about everything, weds Hollywood beauty Jill St. John today in an hotel suite ceremony.

Much-married Barbara Hutton, mother of the groom, headed up the advance party. The Woolworth store heiress arrived last night from Mexico City.

California Supreme Court Justice Marshall McComb will perform the ceremony at the Mark Hopkins Hotel on Nob Hill. Guests include Reventlow's butler, Dudley Walker.

Best man is Reventlow's cousin, Jimmy Woolworth Donahue. The only bridesmaid is actress Nina Shipman.

The newlyweds-to-be had selected presents for each other in Los Angeles. Jill, 19, received a $12,000 blue gray imported convertible sports car.

Lance, 24, makes and races sports cars, and buying something for him was something of a problem for his red-haired beauty.

Saying he has everything, she finally settled on an expensive carved jade object. Reventlow collects jade.

Divorced At 18

The actress, married at 16 and divorced at 18, has been in show business since she was 6. Her press agent credits her with an IQ of 162, genius rating.

Lance is scheduled to drive in a Grand Prix auto race April 2-3 in Riverside, Calif., so there will be no extensive honeymoon. There is talk of a few days in Honolulu, however.

Wherever they roam, the couple can always return to the $500,000 Beverly Hills bungalow Miss Hutton gave her son on his 21st birthday. It has a swimming pool close to the size of small lake and a bathtub reportedly as big as a garage.

Memorial Services Held At Ardeatine

Italian government, civil and church authorities yesterday attended memorial services at the Ardeatine Caves near Rome where 16 years ago Nazi troops executed 335 Italians as a reprisal for the killing of 32 German soldiers.

A rabbi also read services of his rite for the some 60 Jewish victims of the massacre.

The 32 German soldiers were killed by a resistance bomb while marching down a Rome street.

In reprisal, Hitler ordered 10 Italians executed for every German soldier lost. But in the final shooting in the Ardeatine Caves, 15 more lives than prescribed were taken.

The caves are now a national monument.

came out, talked, and also went back.

Seven men—all hostages — came out first. Then seven more men emerged, as a crowd of prison officials, newsmen and 20 troopers, guards and special officers watched.

Then Assistant Deputy Warden Carl Burns, also one of the hostages, walked out, followed by Rivera, then a lawyer who held the pistols.

The three women hostages came out next. Finally Farra came out. He walked across the compound, smoking a cigarette.

State Corrections Commissioner Keith Hampton walked out to meet the hostages and the convicts.

"They were very nice to us," Mrs. Howard Rose, one of the hostages, said. "They were very considerate, there was no bad language and we made it just fine."

She said the hostages "just sat around and talked to each other and to the convicts."

She said there was no arguing among the two convicts.

"Everything was very peaceful," she said.

The two convicts were hustled into a state highway patrol car and taken to the county jail.

The hostages were haggard, some of them pale and shaken, but appeared in good physical shape.

South Korean Students Protest Vote Violence

PUSAN, South Korea, March 24 (AP) — Six hundred students stormed through the streets of Pusan for an hour today in a new protest against the bloody March 15 presidential election.

They stoned a police box and smashed windows in a car carrying members of a special election investigation committee from the National Assembly.
