Rebel Chief Threatens Jakarta Sabotage

SINGAPORE, May 6 (AP)—An Indonesian rebel leader today warned that sabotage units would shortly go into action in Jakarta, blowing up key points in the Indonesian capital. A revolutionary radio broadcast statement by Interior Minister Colonel Dahlan Djambek called on central Sumatrans not to lose heart because of the fall of capital Bukittinggi.

"The rebel movement is not doomed. The occupation of Sumatra has made the defense of Java itself very weak," said Djambek. "Our members in Java will soon act and blow up key points in Jakarta itself."

Final Victory

"With our air force and navy Jakarta will soon taste something she deserves. It is the final victory that counts and we believe the final victory will be ours as we believe our cause is the cause of God."

The radio said rebel guerrillas recently attacked Jakarta forces occupying Padang, Teluk Bajur harbor near Padang, and other places under occupation.

The rebel radio broadcast for the third straight night warnings to the populations in the Javanese cities of Jakarta, Bandung, Semarang and Surabaya to keep away from military objectives, including airports, wharves and barracks.

A report reaching here from Medan said rebel troops commanded by Col. Sumual captured Djailolo on Western Halmahera yesterday.

Correspondent Held

Meanwhile, S. T. Hsieh, correspondent for the Central News Agency of Taipei and Time-Life magazines, was taken into custody by Jakarta garrison command authorities last night.

Three members of the military police and a plainclothes official called at Hsieh's house. The house was searched and the official seized some papers.

Julie Andrews To Wed Walton

LONDON, May 6 (AP)—Julie Andrews, star of the New York and London production of "My Fair Lady" is to marry her childhood sweetheart, Tony Walton.

"We've done it," laughed Miss Andrews. "We're engaged."

She said their engagement was celebrated at a party last night attended by Rex Harrison and other members of the "Fair Lady" cast.

No date for the marriage has been set. Walton is a theatrical designer. He and Julie grew up as neighbors near London.

New Iraq Chamber To Back Solidly Arab Federation

BAHQA, May 6 (AP)—Iraq elected a new Parliament yesterday and thereby surmounted the last legal hurdle before officially proclaiming a federation with the neighboring kingdom of Jordan.

The 145 seat Parliament—118 of whom were elected unopposed—was known to favor federation over meeting around and is expected to meet around May 10 to ratify federation and amend the Iraqi constitution accordingly.

Reports so far indicate voting in Baghdad went smoothly and calmly. A group of students tried to demonstrate against the elections but police dispersed them.

Otherwise there was no sign that the population had heeded a call for a general strike broadcast by the Egyptian and Syria radios.

"I played several of the ads," he said, "but concentrated on 23 because I liked it the most."

Zanoli, 42, said he has been with the hotel since 1948 and "I've played Totocalco too—for years—but I never won."

"I told my wife that since I haven't won an Italian contest, I might be luckier in an American one."

"And, well, I'm glad I won."

Air Raid Drill Sends New Yorkers Scurrying

NEW YORK, May 6 (AP)—Thousands of New Yorkers scurried into air raid shelters today in a civil defense drill but quite a few were a little slow in doing it. Nine pacifists were arrested for refusal to do so.

Five minutes after the warning sirens sounded at 10:30 a.m. people still were sauntering along Fifth Avenue in the Rockefeller Center area, some obviously unaware of the situation. A raid warden appeared and hurried them into a building entrance.

Traffic In Berlin Canal Revives

BRUNSWICK, Germany, May 6 (AP)—Canal traffic to isolated, Allied-occupied West Berlin revived slightly today as some Western barge owners decided to pay barge taxes imposed by Communist East Germany.

The tax became effective yesterday, a fact which caused most Western operators to dock their barges.

West German border officials reported today that three operators paid the taxes and entered East Germany via the Mittelland Canal for the 110-mile trip to Soviet-surrounded West Berlin.

Fulbright Scholar's Wife Wins 1st Prize; Rome Hotelman, 2nd

(Continued from Page 1.) Grill and Direttore restaurants. He also will receive an Elizabeth Arden beauty case for women, a lady's leather pocket book from Gariboldo Gherardini of Florence and a lady's handbag from Tiburzio of Rome.

Winner of the third prize was Olga Schneebalg, of 2A Via Cavour, Milan. Her prize is a three-day stay for two persons at the swank Hotel de Paris in Monte Carlo any weekend during May or June. She also wins the free use of a Fiat 1100 for seven days for the trip to Monte Carlo from the Nolauto System of Avis Rent-a-Car System in Rome, admission by invitation for two at the famed Monte Carlo Casino and a free stake of 10,000 francs to try her luck at the gambling tables. Other prizes in her jackpot are an Elizabeth Arden beauty case, and pair of summer driving gloves from Perrone of Rome.

Fourth prize, a portable Olivetti Lettera 22 typewriter, went to Antolini Corrado, of 10 Via B. Bono Carro, Rome.

The following winners of lesser prizes also were selected in the drawing:

Fifth prize, free voucher for one pair of ladies shoes from Salvatore Ferragamo of Florence, to Salvatore Joscini, 3 Via G. Belli, Rome; sixth, record album of classical music from G. & C. Ricordi, Rome, to Mrs. David Pine, Salzfass Trepp 2, Luzerne, Switzerland; seventh, beaten iron candleabra from "Vigna Nuova" Gallery in Florence, to Teresa Fornicella, 13 Via Andrea Basile, Rome; eighth, white wall clock from Sadetti & C. Rome, to P. M. Zinnoli, 27 Via Felice Nerini, Rome; and ninth, an Omas 361 fountain pen from Omas, Rome, to Thornhill Cooper, 4 Via Torre Russa, Rome.

All the winners are being notified by mail of their good fortune, and the winners of the two trips to Brussels are urged to contact the Daily American as soon as possible so that arrangements for their tickets and hotel reservations can be completed.

Booing

(Continued from Page 1.) crowd of 6,000 greeted Granchi's delay in descending to the race track to hand prizes to the winning German team in Friday's Grand Prix of Nations. Although the incident was apparently non-political, the left-wing Socialists turned it into an election issue by blaming it on "parasitical" and "dope-addicted" aristocrats.

The three students arrested were Nicodemo Furforo, 23, Mario Francesco Caponi, 19, and Riccardo Morrelli, 18.

Also charged with insults to the chief of state were 12 other persons, including 71-year-old retired Army Col. Nicola Infantino and 36-year-old Fulcieri Paolucci de' Calboli, member of one of Italy's most ancient noble families. Two of Paolucci's ancestors were mentioned by Dante in his "Purgatory."

Indonesian Rebels Start New Military Operation

MANILA, May 13 (UP) — The Indonesian revolutionary government tonight announced its Air Force has started "military operations" in outlying areas near North Celebes.

The rebel announcement was broadcast by Radio Menado and monitored here.

Meanwhile, Indonesian Information Minister Sudibyo voiced a special appeal "not to despair" over delayed central government action against rebels in the North Celebes.

Don't Despair

He called on the population "not to despair although the central government has until now not yet implemented its promise to crush the rebel regime in North Celebes."

U.S. Ambassador to Jakarta Howard P. Jones had an important four-hour meeting yesterday with the leader of Indonesia's ruling political party to discuss Indonesian-American relations, it was reported today.

The Indonesian Antara news agency, in a broadcast monitored in Tokyo, said that Jones called on Suwirjo, general chairman of the Indonesian Nationalist Party (PNI) at Suwirjo's residence.

A powerful Communist-led estate workers union today threatened to retaliate against "foreign aggression" in Indonesia by boycott and seizure of American and Chinese estate properties.

JAKARTA DENIES

MANILA, May 13 (AP)—Indonesia today delivered a formal diplomatic protest against charges made here that Russian technicians were helping Jakarta troops in the Indonesian civil war.

"Our note said there is not one word of truth in the charges made by (Philippine Defense Secretary) Jesus Varus. There are no Russian or other Communist nation advisors on our armed forces," an Indonesian embassy official said.

Schoolgirls To Accent Modest Evening Gowns

BALTIMORE, May 13 (AP)—A Committee for Modest Evening Gowns has been formed by girls at the Seton High School here.

Its objects are "to put gowns both modest and attractive in the majority" at school dances, says chairman Pat Johnson. Reaction of one boy friend: "Some girls could be immodest if they were wrapped in a tent."

Rolli's Back In Shape For Jump

ANGELS CAMP, Calif., May 13 (UP)—The official physician for the International Frog Jump issued a bulletin last night on the condition of Rolli, the pregnant frog from Sweden. She laid her 5,000 eggs this morning. But there'll be no tadpoles. The eggs weren't fertilized.

What's more, said Dr. Dante L. Alvasio, Rolli will be able to take part in the jumps Friday—the opening day of the annual contest staged every year in commemoration of Mark Twain's famous short story "The Celebrated Jumping Frog of Calaveras County."

Rolli's owner, Bror W. Lander, Sweden government clerk, happily predicted victory in the jumps for his frog now. She won't have to play mother.

Nasser, Nikita Tighten Ties In New Talks

CAIRO, May 13 (UP)—UAR President Gamal Abdel Nasser and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev resume talks in Moscow today in what reports from the Soviet capital describe as efforts to tighten Russo-Arab cooperation in support of Mideast and African "liberation movements."

The two leaders are expected to issue a joint communique on Thursday—coinciding with the 10th anniversary of the establishment of the state of Israel.

The main topic of the Nasser-Khrushchev talks revolved around Arab claims to Palestine, in accordance with the United Nations 1957 partition scheme. The scheme would consign the Negev Desert in southern Israel to the Arabs.

The two leaders also conferred on the Algerian war and the necessity to end fierce fighting there.

Another topic of discussion dealt with Yemen's claim to the Aden protectorates of Britain.

More Economic Aid
Reports from Moscow said Nasser was seeking to combine Egyptian and Syrian loans from Russia into one sum on the basis of unified terms. They said Nasser probably would request Soviet economic aid.

The two leaders discussed world problems, including a summit conference, suspension of nuclear test explosions and general relaxation of the East-West tension.

On the day Nasser and Khrushchev issue the joint communique, Cairo will observe the 10th anniversary of Israel's birth with a five-minute silence at noon in mourning over the loss of Palestine.

A military parade will display the UAR's Soviet-built military strength and Arab Nationalist leaders will address a mass meeting.
