

SETS LIGHT PLANE MARK—
Jerrie Cobb, 29, who may be the United States' first woman in space, is shown at Los Angeles after setting a new world altitude mark for light planes. Jerrie donned three Arctic survival suits, fur-lined boots and three pairs of gloves and in an hour and 49 minutes flew a two-engine Aero Commander 680 to 37,000 feet breaking the old mark for this class of plane.

Mamie's Mother Dies In Denver Aged 82

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29 (AP)—Mrs. Elvira Doud, 82, mother of Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower, died early today in her sleep at her Denver, Colo., home.

Another daughter, Mrs. G. Gordon Moore, was in Denver with her.

She had been ill for some time.

The White House, announcing Mrs. Doud's death, said Mrs. Eisenhower would go to Denver directly.

President Eisenhower, scheduled to speak at a Republican Party dinner in Chicago, advanced his departure time at 11 a.m. today.

He and Mrs. Eisenhower will leave together aboard the presidential jet plane.

The President will stop at Chicago and Mrs. Eisenhower will go on in the plane to Denver.

No plans for the funeral were set immediately, White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerly said. Therefore, he added, the President's plans are not firm.

Among those accompanying the first lady to Denver will be her son, Lt. Col. John Eisenhower, and her brother-in-law, Col. George Gordon Moore.

The White House said President and Mrs. Eisenhower requested that friends refrain from sending flowers and suggested they send contributions instead to the charity of their choice.

For formal purposes the President's mother-in-law was Mrs. John Sheldon Doud, but among some intimates she was known as "Min"—a nickname bestowed by Eisenhower.

A favorite with the President, she was a frequent White House visitor until her health began to fail.

Reds Lose Bid To By-Pass Committee

knock out considerations of charges that the Soviet Union maintains forces in Hungary and accusations of Communist China aggression against Tibet.

The Soviet bloc's drive to bypass the important political committee and give the Assembly floor to Soviet Premier Khrushchev for a quick disarmament statement was defeated 134 with 4 abstentions.

It voted 114, with 4 abstentions, to consider the Tibet and Hungarian questions in the 98-nation Assembly itself.

The 21-nation committee quickly followed up those two actions by voting down two more Soviet proposals to allocate important questions to the Assembly, bypassing committees.

The vote was 10-7 against putting the Soviet item of granting independence of colonies to peoples directly on to the Assembly floor. It voted 123, with 4 abstentions, against giving first to the Assembly the Soviet charges of American aggression.

A dispute over which committee was to get the items, the vote went 8-2, with 9 abstentions, to put the colonial question into political committee of which Sir Claude Corea of Ceylon is chairman.

Meanwhile Africa was assured top billing in the General Assembly today as the steering committee moved to place ten African issues on the session's bulging agenda.

The 21-nation committee voted in quick succession last night to schedule Assembly debate on the explosive Congo issue and rival proposals by the United States and Russia designed to win over the new African member states.

Earlier the committee voted to inscribe such perennial items as the race situation in South Africa, Algerian independence and a number of trusteeship questions.

With 15 new African nations already taken into the UN fold and Nigeria slated to become the 99th member next week, 25 members from Africa will have a voice in the debates.

After a surprise turnaround by the West, the committee decided in ten minutes last night to call for debate on the Congo question over which it had wrangled for more than an hour the previous night.

U.S. Ambassador James J. Wadsworth said he was not opposing inscription since Russia had agreed to a suggestion by Ceylon to modify the title of the item to "The situation in the Republic of the Congo."

Meanwhile, Khrushchev's lieutenants lost two more important and bitterly-fought skirmishes in the UN.

The Steering Committee voted to bring before the 98 nations in the General Assembly the questions of Russian actions in Hungary, and an airing of Communist China's operations in Tibet. The vote, 11-4, with four abstentions, came after a long and determined Soviet effort to kill the two items.
