A-Sharing Draws Cautious Reaction

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4 (UPI) — President Eisenhower's proposal for giving nuclear arms to trusted Allies drew a cautious reaction today from Congressional atomic energy experts. The administration won liberalized atom-sharing provisions in 1958 but only after a fight with senators who feared leakage of nuclear secrets to Russia and others who opposed the spread of nuclear weapons and nuclear know-how as a threat to world peace.

One leader in that fight, declining the use of his name for the present.

Sen. Albert Gore (D., Tenn.) said the President's recommendations, "if indeed they materialize in a request," would involve "the gravest of problems and require the most serious and non-partisan consideration."

Chairman Clinton P. Anderson (D., N.M.) of the Senate House Atomic Energy Committee said the President's proposal must be "understood by Congress and the American people."

He recalled that revisions in the atomic energy law were approved in 1958 after proponents declared that no assembled nuclear weapons could be given to foreign powers under the terms of the changes then proposed.

Congress, Anderson said, has the right to assume that any new program the President may have will not violate those assurances unless the law itself is changed.

Togliatti Speech Closes Debate At Italy Red Congress

By The Associated Press

Palmiro Togliatti, Moscow-trained leader of Italy's Communist Party, declared yesterday that Marxism best explains "what has happened in the world, what is happening today and what is being prepared."

Togliatti's speech before 1,000 delegates and visiting Red big-wigs from abroad brought to a close debate in the party's Ninth National Congress.

The stubby, 66-year-old Communist leader was cheered from time to time as he reviewed the week-long meeting, held in the modernistic hall that Benito Mussolini built south of Rome for a world fair that was never held. Among those in the audience was Mikhail Suslov, a high member of the Presidium of the Soviet Communist Party.

The current congress — unlike some previous ones, especially the last, held immediately after the Hungarian uprising — was devoid of dissension.

Togliatti explained the apparent unanimity by saying that the party's program "was approved by the congress and was the basis of its unity of action and discipline."

Warsaw Pact Nations Threaten Treaties With East Germany

LONDON, Feb. 4 (UPI) — The eight Communist Warsaw Pact nations today said they will have "no alternative" but to sign separate peace treaties with East Germany if the Western powers are not able to present a satisfactory solution to the German problem.

Tass reported the official communique issued following a one-day Communist summit meeting here also said the Socialist countries will "settle the issue of West Berlin on this basis" if some other solution is not found.

The member nations of the Pact — the Communist bloc's NATO — also urged Western powers to follow the Soviet Union's lead and slash their armed forces.

A declaration issued at the end of a Warsaw Pact meeting in Moscow praised the recent Soviet decision to cut military strength by 1-2,000,000 men.

The declaration said this cut brought the total of troop reductions for Communist nations since the Warsaw Pact was founded to 3,795,500.

U.S. Believes Mikoyan Bears Trade Offers On Cuba Trip

HAVANA, Cuba, Feb. 4 (AP) — Soviet deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan, an old revolutionary himself, arrives today in the revolutionary Cuba of Fidel Castro on a trade and friendship mission.

Russia's top traveling salesman has 750 tons of visual propaganda — a Soviet exposition — to help him succeed.

Mikoyan's visit is expected to take in far more than the announced purpose — to swing open the gates on the scientific, technical and cultural exhibit. It is the same one he opened in New York and Mexico City last year.

U.S. officials in Washington look for Mikoyan to take advantage of the low ebb in American-Cuban relations.

They say the 64-year-old Soviet leader may be carrying a briefcase loaded with trade offers, since Castro has indicated he will deal with Moscow. These might propose Russian technical aid, or an exchange of Russian agricultural machinery for Cuban sugar.

Another possibility is that he might push for a renewal of Soviet-Cuban diplomatic relations. They were broken off in 1952 by Dictator Fulgencio Batista, who accused the Russians of stuffing their diplomatic pouches with propaganda material.

Papal Chauffeur For 37 Years, 'Seriously Ill'

VATICAN CITY, Feb. 4 (UPI) — The chauffeur of Pope was rushed to hospital yesterday and doctors said he was seriously ill.

Angelo Stoppa, aged 66, has been the Pontiff's chauffeur ever since 1923 when he drove the first car of Pope Pius XI.

Until the advent to the Throne of St. Peter of Pope John XXIII Stoppa's duties had been very light. Pope Pius XI and his successor Pius XII rarely left the grounds of the tiny Vatican State. Stoppa's only job then was to drive the Pontiffs along the paths of the Vatican Gardens. Once a year he would drive them to their summer residence at Castelgandolfo, 15 miles south of Rome, and back.

But because of Pope John's love for excursions outside the Vatican Stoppa has been busier in the past 14 months than he was in all his previous 37 years of service.

It is calculated that since he was elected Pope in October 1958 Pope John has taken 44 trips outside the Vatican.
