Board Opens Hearings On Maritime Strike

injunction.

Joseph Curran, president of the National Maritime Union (NMU), one of the six striking unions, said an 80-day injunction could lead to a much worse shipping strike next fall, when the injunction expired.

"Sailors can't be pushed around," he said.

In setting up the fact-finding board, Kennedy said a supply line to Hawaii had been cut by the strike and that shipments of military cargoes had been delayed.

The President, invoking the law with reluctance, said the maritime strike had proved again the need for more flexible procedures to handle a national strike.

Kuwait Emergency

supports Kuwait.

He said President Nasser was interested and studying the situation touched off by Iraqi Premier Kassem's claim to Kuwait.

"I expect the UAR government to issue an official statement Wednesday supporting Kuwait's stand," Hassan declared.

U.S. SUPPORT

WASHINGTON, June 27 (AP) — The United States today supported the independence of Kuwait "as a sovereign state" — and thus opposed Iraq's bid to annex the oil-rich sheikdom.

State Department press officer Lincoln White told a news conference:

"Although we have never exchanged diplomatic representatives (with Kuwait), we do have a consulate in Kuwit and we regard Kuwait as a sovereign state."

White also said that if the small land, which lies between Iraq and Saudi Arabia, should apply for diplomatic relations the United States would probably agree.

"We've had good relations with this country for a number of years," he said, "and we expect to have them in the future."

Rebel Leader Killed

ORAN, Algeria, June 27 (AP) — Police today killed the Algerian rebel leader for the Oran area, authorities announced.

Cubans Return

us," Castro was quoted as saying.

It had been reported earlier that John Hooker Jr., executive secretary of the disbanded Tractors for Freedom Committee would confer with the prisoners once again today.

Hooker said he expected to have a decision to announce to the prisoners on the future of the negotiations.

He would not comment on the nature of the decision.

At Miami, Hooker said he had received no indication whatever from the prisoners that they expected to go back to Cuba so soon.

His last information, he said, was that they could stay in the United States at least 29 days.

A U.S. immigration official here who has been dealing with the prisoners said he had heard nothing of their immediate return to Cuba.

"I don't believe it," he said. "There are no such plans."

Wildcat Strike Hits British Ford Blant

LONDON, June 27 (AP) — A spreading wildcat strike threatened today to shut down the giant Ford Motor complex at Dagenham and throw 32,000 persons out of work.

The walkout started when 8,000 night shift workers put down their tools. They were soon joined by 5,000 day shift men.

Five Britons Drown

TROMSOE, Norway, June 27 (AP) — Five members of a British scientific expedition drowned in the icy waters off the bleak Arctic Norwegian island of Jan Mayen yesterday, police reported here today.

from Idlewild which stops only at Paris before landing at Fiumicino Airport.

Santarelli and his wife use his tiny shoemaking establishment in Trastevere as their home. The family includes a married son who cannot assist his parents financially, and, between bad spells of his illness, Santarelli plies his trade in an attempt to make up for the medical and social assistance which he does not receive.

The shoemaker's troubles began in 1946, just after the war, when his face became partially paralyzed. He then suffered three heart attacks in fairly rapid succession.

Recently his condition has been aggravated by the failure of a body function which Dr. Moretti says can be alleviated only by aldactone. Lack of treatment and the proper medicine could mean death.

Gamble To Try Business

Mrs Katherine Geddes Benedict, can be overcome and the fortune will come their way next January when "Gamble" becomes 21.

Mrs Benedict was due to appear in New York Surrogate's Court Wednesday in another stage of Gamble's fight for control of one-third of the Remington-Rand estate, estimated at $90 million.

Meanwhile, Gamble and her husband are living on a $2,500 a month allowance in Zurich's Dolder Grand Hotel, a sprawling, stately structure considered one of Europe's most exclusive hotels.

"Its not bad but we're sort of crowded here," says Porumbeanu.

With them is their three-month old son, Gheorghi Mihai, who recently was granted a $500-a-month allowance from the Remington-Rand money.

They chose Zurich because of the possibilities it offers "in the field of international banking," says Porumbeanu.

"I am going to embark on international finance research and will concentrate on underdeveloped countries.

"Later, I intend to take a fact-finding tour of the countries I consider of particular interest. We hope to set up some sort of consumer goods industry there — I like challenge."

"Yes, its simply wonderful," said Gamble, her blue eyes sparkling.

Eichmann Denial

transmission to Germny.

Kappler, now a greying man looking slightly older than his age and toothless following an attack of pyorrhea, was sentenced to a life term after the war for the 1944 shooting of 335 Italian hostages at the Ardeatine caves. The massacre was a more than 10-to-one reprisal for a partisan bombing which killed 32 German soldiers.

The former SS colonel is serving the sentence in the Gaeta military jail: a former castle of the Angevin kings of Naples, along with Albert Raeder, another Nazi criminal sentenced to life term for the massacre of 1,000 Italians in the town of Marzabotto.

Kappler is earning some money by raising goldfish which he sells to Rome shops.

Salazar Blasts U. S. Stand On Angola

their openly supporting the terrorist action which has broken out in Angola.

Served Communism

He added that in this way the United States had served the Communist policy of subversion and expansion in Africa.

Thus the United States, Salazar continued, although with different intentions, has embarked on the development of a policy parallel to that of Russia, which is clearly irreconcilable with the objectives of the North Atlantic Treaty.

The Premier began by declaring that what he had to say about the overseas question was said "with deep regret, but with a full sense of responsibility."

He said the U.S. position was a basic contradiction in American policy, since whenever her African policy was hostile to France, Belgium or Portugal, it not only weakened them but affects the confidence of her allies in Europe.

Salazar added that although contradictions in thought were possible, such contradictions in action were inadmissible and if the United States persists in them it might easily happen that America, prisoner of rigid ideological concepts, may eventually become a victim — the last victim — of such contradictions.

He analyzed the United Nations principle of self-determination as applied to Portugal's case.

He asserted that the application of this principle to the Cape Verde Islands, Sao Tome and Principe Islands, Portuguese Guinea, Macao, Timor and Portuguese India would inevitably result first in independence which they would be unable to maintain for economic reasons.

Diary Records 'Entry'

LONDON, June 30 (AP) — Mrs Janet Winn opened her diary and found this entry for the day, made out by someone else: "House burgled 5 a.m."

She looked around, found the burglar had stolen 24 pounds ($67.20) while she slept.

Maritime Strike Talks Show Progress

ident Kennedy's fact-finding board, announced the conditional agreement between the National Maritime Union (NMU) and the American Merchant Marine Institute and the Tanker Labor Committee.

Similar Agreements

The agreement would go into effect, he said, is a similar agreement was reached with the Masters, Mates and Pilots and the American Radio Association.

Other benefits gained by the seamen were:

Equalization of vacations with officer personnel. Seamen now getting a 30-day annual vacation would get 60 days as officers do.

Operators will increase their contributions by 50 cents per man per day to the present pension and welfare funds. It also was agreed that one dollar would be given to the pension and welfare system per officer personnel in order to equalize those contribution.

Officers' Allowance

Seamen will receive allowances for food, lodging and transportation to bring them up to officers' allowance.

It was agreed that certain NMU demands for changes in working rules would be placed before a union-management committee. Any unresolved demands would go to binding arbitration.

Reds Demand U.S. Hand Over German For Trial

fought in both France and Russia in World War I.

He entered the Weimar Republic's Reichswehr after the war and in 1931 became a member of the General Staff's Operations Division.

After his release by the allies Heusinger became, in 1949, along with Gen. Hans Speidel, adviser on military matters to Chancellor Konrad Adenauer. He was a chief architect of the post-war Bundeswehr.

He was promoted to his wartime rank of Lieutenant General in 1955 and to full General in 1957.

Heusinger was chief of the Operations Divisions of the German General Staff during World War II and was at Hitler's side when a conspirator's bomb exploded at a conference on July 20, 1944.

Heusinger, who was wounded, had known of the plot but did not take part. The Nazis arrested him, held him for two months, then released him, but did not return him to active duty.

A question as to why the demand for Heusinger was made now brought a reply from Kharlamov, who was conducting the press conference, that the extraordinary commission for investigating war crimes had just finished "investigating" the case. But a moment later he added that the part Heusinger played in the war had been known for years. He said:

"He could have been brought to trial at Nuremberg, but that can be easily rectified now."

The proposed trial would be held in the Soviet Union but Kharlamov said he believed there would be no objection to other nations taking part.

U.S. REACTION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12 (UPI) — U.S. officials accused Russia today of a "ludicrous" attempt to discredit Gen. Heusinger and thereby diminish the effectiveness of West Germany in the NATO alliance.

The accusation was the immediate reaction of State Department officials to the Russian demand.

The view at the State Department was that the effort would fail because Heusinger had been thoroughly investigated and his appointment approved by all pact countries.

Officials pointed out that the Russians frequently, on the eve of NATO Council meetings such as that opening in Paris tomorrow, have tried to sow disunity among members of the alliance and discredit it in the eyes of the rest of the world. They acknowledged that this was the most spectacular Russian effort along this line so far.

BONN REACTION

BONN, Dec. 12 (AP) — The West German government today rejected as completely false the accusations made by the Soviet Union and declared it would never consent to Heusinger's being turned over to Soviet authorities.

A West German Foreign Ministry spokesman said the government here long ago had cleared Heusinger and had no intention of agreeing that he be tried in the Soviet Union of crimes he never committed.

unified, independent and democratic Korea under a representative form of government, and the full restoration of international peace and security in the area."

Sponsoring the resolution at this session are Australia, Belgium, Britain, Canada, Colombia, France, Greece, Luxembourg, Netherlands, New Zealand, Philippines, South Africa, Thailand, Turkey and the United States.

Referring to a Mongolian motion to allow North Korea a voice in the debate, U.S. Ambassador Charles W. Yost told the committee no useful purpose would be sreved by inviting into the debate North Korea, "a regime which denies we have any right to discuss the Korean question."

Yost said North Korea "attacked the United Nations for its role in Korea, and let us not forget that it carried on an aggressive war against UN forces for three years."

Court Finds Eichmann Guilty On All 15 Counts

JERUSALEM, Dec. 12 (AP)—The special Israeli tribunal concluded the reading of its judgment on Adolf Eichmann today with a summary finding the former Gestapo Colonel guilty on all 15 counts of the indictment handed down last April.

The court yesterday found him guilty of the four major counts charging crimes against the Jewish people and against humanity, war crimes and membership in "hostile" Nazi organizations.

and finally summon troops to help disperse an angry crowd.

One man was rescued by police after he had been beaten and his bloodied clothing ripped from his back. Another man rescued was Placito Reyna, former Monte Cristi Province Governor. He was cornered by a mob on El Conde Street.

A third mob beat a woman with sticks and coconuts. The woman, not immediately identified, ran the gauntlet of the jeering mob for a block before she forced her way through to freedom.

French Censure

the first concrete step in the mounting campaign to topple Premier Debre and his government. Unless there are defections among the middle-road parties which normally support the Gaullist government the censure motion was certain to fail.

The opposition called the vote of censure when it became clear Debre was going to get his controversial 1962 budget bill through Parliament without staking his government's existence on a confidence vote.

The bill passed tonight.

Congo Air War Grows

Secretary of State Dean Rusk's party at the Paris Conference.

On another hospital strike, a UN spokesman expressed "extreme regret" that some UN mortar shells apparently hit the hospital in the vicinity of the Massart Gendarmerie camp. He said the shells went astray in UN attack on the camp. According to UN reports, six persons were injured slightly by the stray shells

UN Planes also destroyed two Katangese armored cars here, another at Jadotville and a plane at a base 125 miles from Elisabethville, the UN spokesman said.

Mortar shells, reportedly fired by UN troops, bombarded Elisabethville's fashionable West Side last night, landing near the American and British Consulate and President Moise Tshombé's home.

Officials said the shells apparently caused little damage, since the homes in the neighborhood are far apart and most of the mortars hit lawns, gardens or sidewalks.

More than 200 fresh Swedish troops arrived from Stockholm today and were flown straight here the UN continued its military buildup.

And in Tunis, the Tunisian government today decided to send a new contingent of troops to the Congo.

The Tunisian contingent in the Congo was withdrawn during the fighting in Bizerte in July.

The Tunisian announcement said the decision was made in response to an appeal by U Thant.

The UN announced another [illegible] ing attack on Elisabethville early this morning in a De Ha[illegible] plane—believed to be a De Ha[illegible] Dove—dropped several bombs. UN said they fell outside the [illegible] complex and caused no [illegible] damage.
