Question Of Humor

The two men at the bar were engaged in a heated debate over the human qualities of two past Presidents, Calvin Coolidge and Herbert Hoover. "Coolidge had the keenest sense of humor of the two," insisted the gentleman with the Boston accent, rattling off a half dozen of the familiar Coolidge witticisms. His listener yawned, stirred the ice in his glass and broke in with, "You may be right, but I just came from New York, and not many weeks ago a crowd at Town Hall listened avidly to Mr Hoover, and rose spontaneously when the ex-President entered the hall. He delighted his audience, when deploring waste and extravagance in government, by expressing his pity 'for the poor little decimal point who has been hopping around among the numbers, trying to find someplace to conceal his confusion.' Then he topped it by remarking "I am the old country doctor, called in for consultation, while Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey and U. S. Senator Harry F. Byrd are in the operating room'."

Sour Note

The Basilica di Massenzio outdoor summer concert program, which got off to a bad start when the weatherman went back on it, ran into trouble again last night. The orchestra went on a protest strike over a dispute with Rome community authorities. Last night's program, to have been directed by conductor Alceo Calliera, was postponed until tomorrow night at 9:30.

'The Body's' Husband Now In Hot Water

SANTA MONICA, Calif., June 23 (AP) — Marie McDonald's wealthy husband was charged with felonious assault yesterday after two news photographers charge he tried to run them down as he was driving the actress home from a police station in nearby Beverly Hills.

The actress was arrested Monday and charged with driving while under the influence of a drug. Police said her car struck four automobiles and that she tried to bite two officers later when they put her in a jail cell.

Deputy District Attorney George Johnson said yesterday's complaint issued against Harry Karl, shoe manufacturer, accused him of assault.

The two photographers filed the complaint.

Earlier, Miss McDonald sent word she was too ill to appear in court and her arraignment was continued after an affidavit presented by her doctor saying she was ill. Her lawyer posted a $500 bond for her.

A police report Monday showed Miss McDonald said she had taken two nembutol and four seconal tablets. Her physician confirmed the statement he had given her a prescription for sedatives.

Concerning the complaint against Karl, attorney Lloyd Wright, representing Karl and his wife, told newsmen:

"Mr Karl does not have any knowledge of the nature of the complaint. He assumes it arose out of a general melee when he was trying to get his wife home from the police station."

Karl was arraigned on the charges and ordered to return to court Friday. He posted a $1,000 bond.
