Rebel Chief Threatens Jakarta Sabotage

SINGAPORE, May 6 (AP)—An Indonesian rebel leader today warned that sabotage units would shortly go into action in Jakarta, blowing up key points in the Indonesian capital. A revolutionary radio broadcast statement by Interior Minister Colonel Dahlan Djambek called on central Sumatrans not to lose heart because of the fall of capital Bukittinggi.

"The rebel movement is not doomed. The occupation of Sumatra has made the defense of Java itself very weak," said Djambek. Our members in Java will soon act and blow up key points in Jakarta itself."

Final Victory

"With our air force and navy Jakarta will soon taste something she deserves. It is the final victory that counts and we believe the final victory will be ours as we believe our cause is the cause of God."

The radio said rebel guerrillas nightly attack Jakarta forces occupying Padang, Teluk Bajur harbor near Padang, and other places under occupation.

The rebel radio broadcast for the third straight night warnings to populations in the Javanese cities of Jakarta, Bandung, Semarang and Sourabaya to keep away from military objectives, including airfields, wharves and barracks.

A report reaching here from Medado said rebel troops commanded by Col. Sumual captured Djailolo on Western Halmahera yesterday.

Correspondent Held

Meanwhile, S. T. Hsieh, correspondent for the Central News Agency of Taipeh and Time-Life magazines, was taken into custody by Jakarta garrison command authorities last night.

Three members of the military police and a plainclothes official called at Hsieh's house. The house was searched and the official seized some papers.

Julie Andrews To Wed Walton

LONDON, May 6 (AP) — Julie Andrews, star of the New York and London production of "My Fair Lady" is to marry her childhood sweetheart, Tony Walton.

"We've done it," laughed Miss Andrews, "We're engaged."

She said their engagement was celebarted at a party last night attended by Rex Harrison and other members of the Fair Lady cast.

No date for the marriage has been set. Walton is a theatrical designer. He and julie grew up as neighbors near London.

New Iraq Chamber To Back Solidly Arab Federation

BAGHDAD, May 6 (AP) — Iraq elected a new Parliament yesterday and thereby surmounted the last legal hurdle before officially proclaiming a federation with the neighboring kingdom of Jordan.

The 145 seat Parliament — 118 of whom were elected unopposed — is known to favor federation overwhelmingly and is expected to meet around May 10 to ratify federation and amend the Iraqi constitution accordingly.

Reports so far indicate voting in Baghdad went smoothly and calmly. A group of students tried to demonstrate against the elections but police dispersed them.

Otherwise there was no sign that the population had heeded a call for a general strike broadcast by the Egyptian and Syria radios.

"I told my wife that since I haven't won an Italian contest, I might be luckier in an American one.

"And, well, I'm glad I won."

Air Raid Drill Sends New Yorkers Scurrying

NEW YORK, May 6 (AP) — Thousands of New Yorkers scurried into air raid shelters today in a civil defense drill but quite a few were a little slow in doing it. Nine pacifists were arrested for refusal to do so.

Five minutes after the warning sirens sounded at 10:30 a.m. people still were sauntering along Fifth Avenue in the Rockefeller Center area, some obviously unaware of the situation. A raid warden appeared and hurried them into a building entrance.

Traffic In Berlin Canal Revives

BRUNSWICK, Germany, May 6 (AP)—Canal traffic to isolated, Allied-occupied West Berlin revived slightly today as some Western barge owners decided to pay barge taxes imposed by Communist East Germany.

The tax became effective yesterday, a fact which caused most Western operators to dock their barges.

West German border officials reported today that three operators paid the taxes and entered East Germany via the Mittelland Canal for the 110-mile trip to Soviet-surrounded West Berlin.

Grill and Directoire restaurants.

He also will receive an Elizabeth Arden beauty case for women, a lady's leather pocket book from Gariboldo Gherardini of Florence and a lady's handbag from Tiburzio of Rome.

Winner of the third prize was Olga Schnebbaig, of 2-A Via C. Poerio, Milan. Her prize is a three-day stay for two persons at the swank Hotel de Paris in Monte Carlo any weekend during May or June. She also wins the free use of a Fiat 1100 for seven days for the trip to Monte Carlo from the Nolauto System of Avis Rent-a-Car System in Rome, admission by invitation for two at the famed Monte Carlo Casino and a free stake of 10,000 francs to try her luck at the gambling tables. Other prizes in her jackpot are an Elizabeth Arden beauty case, and pair of summer driving gloves from Perrone of Rome.

Fourth prize, a portable Olivetti Lettera 22 typewriter, went to Antolini Corrado; of 10 Via B. Bono Cairoli, Rome.

The following winners of lesser prizes also were selected in the drawing:

Fifth prize, free voucher for one pair of ladies shoes from Salvatore Ferragamo of Florence, to Salvatore Jocson, 3 Via G. Belli, Rome; sixth, record album of classical music from G. & C. Ricordi, Rome, to Mrs David Pine, Salzfass Treppe 2, Luzerne, Switzerland; seventh, beaten iron candelabra from "Vigna Nuova" Gallery in Florence, to Teresa Fornichella, 13 Via Andrea Basile, Rome; eighth, white wall clock from Bedetti & C., Rome, to P. M. Zinuoni, 27 Via Felice Nerini, Rome, and ninth, an Omas 361 fountain pen from Omas, Rome, to Thornhill Cooper, 4 Via Torre Rossa, Rome.

All the winners are being notified by mail of their good fortune, and the winners of the two trips to Brussels are urged to contact the Daily American as soon as possible so that arrangements for their tickets and hotel reservations can be completed.

Booing

crowd of 6,000 greeted Gronchi's delay in descending to the race track to hand prizes to the winning German team in Friday's Grand Prix of Nations. Although the incident was apparently non-political, the leftwing Socialists turned it into an election issue by blaming it on "parasitical" and "dope-addicted" aristocrats.

The three students arrested were Nicodemo Furforo, 23, Mario Francesco Caponi, 19, and Riccardo Morelli, 18.

Also charged with insults to the chief of state were 12 other persons, including 71-year-old retired Army Col. Nicola Infantino and 36-year-old Fulcieri Paolucci de' Calboli, member of one of Italy's most ancient noble families. Two of Paolucci's ancestors were mentioned by Dante in his "Purgatory."

Stuttgart Gardener Admits Murdering Kidnapped Child

STUTTGART, Germany, May 15 (UP)—A 41-year-old gardener told police today he kidnapped and killed a 7-year-old boy in hope of gaining ransom money to pay for his married mistress' divorce.

Emil Tillmann of Viersen confessed, police here said, that he had kidnapped Joachim Goehner in Stuttgart on April 15 and killed him in nearby woods the same day. He had then attempted to collect ransom from the boy's father.

Tape-recordings of the kidnaper's voice telephoning his demands to Joachim's father had been broadcast over German radio stations as part of a nationwide police hunt.

Stuttgart police said Tillmann had been in custody since May 6. Not all details of his confession had yet been corroborated, but police believed he was definitely the man who sought money from Joachim's father.

The kidnaping, the first in Germany in more than a generation, had shocked and horrified West Germans and added fuel to a current campaign to re-impose the death penalty for capital crimes.

Tillmann told police he needed money to pay for his mistress' divorce from her present husband. He said, police added, he had attempted and failed to kidnap a 12-year-old child earlier in April.

The mistress was also taken into custody.

Idaho University Dormitory Burns

MOSCOW, Idaho, May 15 (AP)—Flames roared through the block-long campus club men's dormitory at the University of Idaho last night. Early reports indicated all 150 residents were able to escape.

The blaze was first spotted about 9:50 p.m. and quickly spread through the frame building. Most of the students had not gone to bed and those who had were quickly roused.

No other campus building was threatened by the fire. There was no immediate damage estimate.

USIA Chief Raps Red Suppression Of Press

BEVERLY HILL, Calif., May 15 (AP) — The Director of the U.S. Information Agency said last night that if a free press existed in Eastern Europe the Soviet government would not be able to dominate a single government outside its own borders.

The statement was made in an address prepared by George V. Allen for the first biennial foreign press awards dinner of the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA).

4 Boys Die Under Pile Of Salt From Rail Car

DETROIT, May 15 (AP) — Four school boys were killed when they were buried under tons of salt in a railroad car.

They were playing in the salt in the open car when they apparently tripped the mechanism controlling the hopper device that lets the cargo pour out underneath the car. The suction of the slat draining through pulled the boys along and buried them.

Shell Ceylon Deal?

COLOMBO, May 15 (UP) — Shell Petroleum Co. is negotiating with the Ceylon government for a long lease on 574 acres of land on which extensive British fuel depots are located, industrial sources said here today. The depots, at the Trincomalee naval base, will be used for the storing and distribution of crude and refined oil and other petroleum products, the sources said.

Germany Honors France's Schuman

AACHEN, Germany, May 15 (AP)—Robert Schuman, 71-year-old French statesman, today was awarded the Charlemagne Prize in recognition of his work in promoting European unity. Schuman, recently elected president of the new European Assembly, told an overflow crowd in Aachen's 1,000 year old city hall:

"The central problem in achieving European unity already has been solved because now a clash between Germany and France has become unthinkable."

Heinrich von Brentano, West German Foreign Minister, saluted Schuman for giving "the first real impetus to European unity" through fathering the European Coal and Steel Community, known as the Schuman Plan.

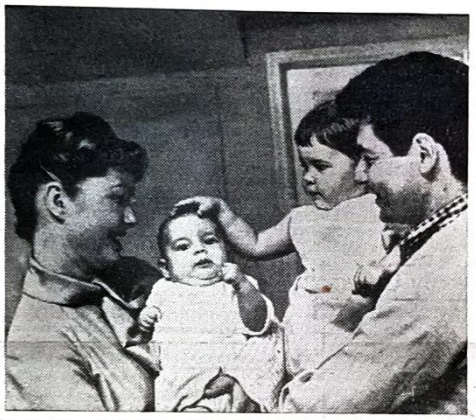

"United Europe is for us as well as for you an end in itself," Von Brentano said.

The prize is worth 5,000 marks ($1,190) to the recipient.

Among previous winners are Sir Winston Churchill, Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of West Germany, Paul-Henri Spaak, NATO Secretary-General, and the late Italian Premier Alcide de Gasperi.
