Thalidomide Controversy Worldwide

for human use. He said a British doctor reported thalidomide, tested on rabbits after the drug went on the market, produced deformities "remarkably similar to those seen in humans."

Another senator, Jacob Javits (R., N.Y.), called for a congressional investigation into whether drugs are being administered experimentally to human beings.

TORONTO—Prof. Leslie Hilliard, a British doctor specializing in mental retardation, said special institutions should be opened immediately for babies born deformed as a result of thalidomide. "It's no use waiting until it's too late," he added.

Three Toronto obstetricians assured mothers who had given birth to drug-deformed babies that they should not have any fears about future children. The drug, said one of the doctors "should have no reaction on the next baby."

WASHINGTON—The Food and Drug Administration said it is investigating several cases which may involve rigged clinical research on drugs that are improperly or inadequately tested before general release. This "ultimate in quackery," as one FDA official put it, is "man's worst meanness to his fellow men."

LONDON—Britain's Medical Research Council said it will set up a panel of experts to seek ways of screening the public further from dangerous drugs such as thalidomide.

to be any breakdown in the agreement it should be perfectly obvious that it came from the other side."

Harriman added: "I don't think that Khrushchev would assume these obligations unless he knew that he'd cary them out."

KENNEDY PLEDGE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1 (Reuter)—President Kennedy and Prince Souvanna Phouma, the Laotian prime minister, have pledged in a joint communique the "mutual determination" of their two governments to fulfil their commitments under the 14-nations Geneva agreements.

'Big Party' In Peiping

TOKYO, Aug. 1 (AP) — A "big party" was held in Peiping last night to mark the 35th anniversary of the founding of Communist China's Army, the New China News Agency reported.

justification for the Soviet claim that a test ban treaty can be effective without on site inspection."

On other foreign policy questions, the President made these points:

1. There has been progress in southeast Asia and the south west Pacific in the last 10 days as the result of the signing of the 14-nation Laos accord, the agreement of Indonesia and the Netherlands on a peaceful settlement of the New Guinea dispute and on the agreement to establish a Malaysian federation.

"If we could get a Congo agreement between Premier Cyrille Adoula and Katanga leader Moise Tshombe it could be an important summer," the President said.

2. On Britain's decision to terminate its agreement with the U.S. on the use of Thor missile bases, Kennedy said the U.S. was given advance notice of Britain's move. "It should have no adverse effects, psychologically," he said."

3. Asked about the resignation of Lieutenant General James M. Gavin as U.S. ambassador to France because of the heavy financial burden of maintaining his post in Paris, the President acknowledged that the representation allowances given to U.S. ambassadors "still squeezes because Ambassador Gavin has some family and some children to educate."

Faubus

label on former Gov. Sid McMath. Alford and McMath waged a spirited but meaningless battle for second place among Faubus' five opponents.

Returns from 2,029 of 2,348 precincts gave Faubus 152,332 votes to 134,041 for the combined opposition.

Fulbright had 153,073 votes, Chandler 82,511 in 1,946 precincts.

Although the Faubus victory trend was established early, he lost strength from 1960 when he polled 58.7 per cent of a record 407,183 votes.

Both Faubus and Fulbright will have Republican opposition in November but Arkansas has not elected a Republican to a major office since reconstruction.

LEND ME YOUR EARS:

Gen. De Gennaro Leaving SETAF Missile Command

A FAREWELL REVIEW and change of command ceremony in Verona at Caserma Chinotto this Saturday and an Honor Guard ceremony at Caserma Passalacqua next Monday will mark the end of Brig. Gen. Giovanni De Gennaro's tour of duty as Commanding General of the Southern European Task Force (SETAF) III Italian Missile Brigade. Gen. De Gennaro is being reassigned to Allied Land Forces, Southern Europe, (LANDSOUTH) where he will become Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations under Italian Gen. Siro Bernabò at his NATO Headquarters. Italian Brig. Gen. Salvatore Arcovito has been named to succeed Gen. De Gennaro.

The review Saturday will see Italian troops pass in review for the general, who has commanded SETAF's III Missile Brigade for the past 23 months. In departing from the Brigade, Gen. De Gennaro leaves behind him a unit known to be a "most effective defense instrument." The Brigade has been personally cited by Gen. Lauris Norstad, Supreme Allied Commander, Europe, who praised the unit for not having one penalty assessed against it during an operational readiness inspection.

HAMPTON

Dancing In Venice

Americans all over Europe are headed for Venice for the International Film Festival and more than likely a large number of them will also drop in at the famed Casino Municipal at the Lido de Venice where they'll have the chance to see the well-known American dance team of Belinda and Hal de Becker. The de Beckers, combining their first European holiday with a few special appearances, will be at the Casino until Aug. 31 before flying on to Montreux, Switzerland, for their final European appearance at the Casino Kursaal. They've already played two casinos on the French Riviera and say European audiences are "wonderful." The de Beckers, who hail from Burbank, Calif., specialize in modern stylings of classic dances.

THE DE BECKERS

Mainly Military

Maj. Sandro Barone, able public information officer at the 8th Logistical Command, Camp Darby, leaves at month's end for his new assignment with the public affairs office in Heidelberg . . . the successor to Tony Iannacio at Camp Darby's Stars and Stripes distribution center is Joe McCabe, who came up from Athens — where Iannacio goes on Aug. 27 . . . Lt. Col. Ralph W. Hampton has taken over as new Commander of the Missile Battalion, 80th Artillery, at Vicenza Post. He succeeds Lt. Col. Thomas E. Wesson who is leaving for an assignment in the office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations at Hq., USAREUR, in Heidelberg, Germany, Hampton, former S-4 of Hq., 1st Missile Command, came to Vicenza from Fort Leavenworth, Kan., where he attended the Command and General Staff Course. He is originally from Urbana, Ill.

Turnstiles

Sheik Al-Sabbah of Kuwait has arrived in Rome and is staying at the Excelsior . . . Italian singer Jula De Palma has TWAired to Madrid . . . John Cassavetes, the young American director, is in Rome for film conferences . . . Marianne Moore, the American poet who specializes in well-considered trifles, is in Rome on holiday . . . Leaving on board the Leonardo da Vinci for New York on Tuesday were Vincenzo Zito of Italian UN staff, Countess Dela Belgrano and her daughter, Frank Benemio of the U.S. Immigration Dept., Dr. Morris Wein of Forrest Hills, Arthur Coltman of the World Medical Association, Edward Barbieri and William Auerbach . . . Mylene Demongeot, the French film star, has come to Rome for costume fittings for her new movie "Gold for the Caesars." She stars opposite Jeffrey Hunter . . . Italian actor Ugo Tognazzi has returned from Denmark to take the leading role in "Ape Regina."

Out Of The Grab Bag

English literary critic Cyril Connolly, making his report of a modern Grand Tour for the British Sunday Times, gave high praise to the Rome Daily American which, he said "seems to contain all one ever wants to know of the world within and without" . . . Still very much visible down in Greece, they say, is the American "Echo One" satellite which can be viewed every night with the naked eye. Aug. 12 was its second birthday . . . The concert at the Basilica di Massenzio on Friday night will have Nino Bonavolontà as director. On the program are Beethoven, Smetana, Wagner and Petrassi . . . A spanking new modern Greek-English dictionary is now being prepared in Athens to fill a long-felt need for a really good dictionary of the living language. The project is financed under a contract of the U.S. Office of Education with the University of North Dakota. The work is under the direction of Dr. Demetrios J. Georgacas assisted by Mrs Barbara Georgacas and a staff of Greek assistants . . . The Festival of Theater at San Miniato began yesterday. The play "Miguel Manara" by the Lithuanian poet Oscar V. de Lubicz Milosz, will be presented each night through Aug. 27.

LANDS FILM ROLE—American actress Melissa Drake, who studied social and political philosophy at Harvard but returned to her first love—the theater — has been signed for her first screen appearance by Italian director Marco Ferreri. She will have a part in "L'Ape Regina" (The Queen Bee). Miss Drake, now 20, plumped for the theater at the age of four, started voice and diction lessons at ten, and four years later began to learn "method acting" from Madame Bulgokov, who had worked with Stanislavski in the Moscow Art Theater. She toured with a company of children in "The Emperor's Clothes," left Bennington College to study music and dance at the Boston Conservatory. After that, there was a year with Stella Adler. She has been a model in New York and a social worker in a Massachusetts state mental hospital.
