Eichmann Accuses Allies

examination of European Jewry. For two full sessions the court heard lengthy extracts from Eichmann's statement seeking to whitewash himself.

When, just before the court adjourned for the weekend, the prosecution asked leave to introduce just one more tape recording of another statement Eichmann had made, his German defense counsel Robert Servatius said he had not the slightest objection.

"If this is as favorable to Eichmann's case as the recordings we have heard so far, who should I be objecting" the grey-haired German attorney asked.

Summarizing his whole attitude, Eichmann declared, "I followed my orders blindly and in this way I found my fulfillment and my tranquility in what we were told and what we could not image in any other way was the fateful struggle of the German people, regardless of what task might be given to me."

11 Die In India Fire

NEW DELHI, April 21 (AP) — Nine children and two men were burned to death when fire razed 80 huts near Gandhi's shrine here last night.

Souvanna Predicts

the East and West had reached a compromise on the sequence of cease-fire and peace conference which made it possible to publish a truce appeal.

Souvanna said in an interview he would spend two or three days in Laos.

"During that time I believe an effective government can be created," he said.

The Prince, who is still recognized by the Soviet Union as chief of the legal government of Laos, said he did not know whether he would be Prime Minister in a government of national union thus created.

He also declined to speculate on which party would get which Cabinet posts, but apparently all will be represented including the group headed by American-backed Prince Boun Oum and the Communist-backed Pathet Lao.

NYC Sends Rome One Of Its Prime Attractions

One of New York City's most glamorous women will arrive in Rome today on a special sort of diplomatic mission.

She is Peggy Jacobsen, a top New York model, and she carries the portfolio of ambassador for New York's 1961 Summer Festival. Her job will be to try to sell Romans on taking vacations in New York.

Miss Jacobsen, who was chosen for the honor over 200 other models, has been touring European capitals since April 7.

She will arrive in Rome via KLM Royal Dutch Airlines at 1:10 p.m., and will begin her three-day visit with a round of press interviews.

Romans will have a chance to see and talk with her tomorrow in the Tivoli area. She will arrive at Tivoli at 11 a.m., and during the day will visit Villa D'Este and Villa Adriana.

At 10:30 a.m. Monday she will be received by Rome's Mayor Urbano Cioccetti in his office. The remainder of the day will be devoted to meetings with various travel agents in Rome.

Miss Jacobsen will fly to Amsterdam Tuesday morning.

The New York Convention and Visitors Bureau thinks she's especially qualified to promote their city. A native of Los Angeles, she has lived in New York more than two years and is one of its most ardent boosters. Before leaving for Europe, she took a refresher tour of the city, and has all the facts about New York a prospective tourist would need at her fingertips.

TWA Jet Sets Record New York-Rome Flight

A Trans World Airlines jetliner set a new speed record of five hours, 59 minutes yesterday on a flight from New York to Rome, TWA announced here.

The previous record for the 3,576-mile trip, also held by TWA, was six hours, 22 minutes. The Boeing 707 that set the new record carried 99 passengers and a crew of 11, and was piloted by Capt. L. M. Williams.

N. Korea Takeover By Russia Feared

WASHINGTON, April 21 (AP) — A State Department study of Communist North Korea says the Soviet Union has opened the way for "voluntary" political integration of the country into the Soviet Union.

The 121-page study, called "North Korea: A Case Study in the Techniques of Takeover," is based on the findings of a State Department research mission which conducted a survey in Korea.

The findings were released yesterday to coincide with an expected debate in the UN General Assembly on the question of Korean unification.

It concluded that there is "considerable evidence to indicate that the formation of a satellite regime in North Korea was merely an evolutionary phase in Soviet plans for the area."

Laos Rebels Foil Ceasefire Attempt

have stalled on fulfilling the ceasefire agreement.

Gen. Phoumi Nosavan, strongman of the pro-Western government, dispatched Lt. Col. Siho Lamphouthakou to Ban Vang Khi, 12 miles south of Vang Vieng, in an attempt to meet a rebel representative to negotiate a ceasefire.

The officer spent four hours in the no-man's-land, the government said.

It announced he would go out again from 8 a.m. to noon Monday. The government statement also said all royal troops have been ordered not to fire unless fired upon.

Moscow Radio, meanwhile, quoted Prince Souvanna Phouma as demanding today that truce envoys of the pro-Western Laotian government come to his headquarters within 48 hours. Otherwise the civil war goes on.

This looked like a clearcut ultimatum by the Prince.

He claims to be a neutralist and legal premier of Laos. But almost all his actions in the explosive crisis have won Russian cheers.

Souvanna Phouma's demand for a truce parley at Xieng Khouang, rebel headquarters, seems certain of rejection by the Vientiane government of Prince Boun Oum.

Acceptance would look too much like a surrender.

Truce talks traditionally take place in no-man's-land.

Souvanna Phouma's demand, coupled with a flare-up of new fighting, appeared to jeopardize the entire delicately-balanced peace program agreed by Britain and Russia last Monday.

U.S. officials said today that by delaying the effectiveness of a cease fire in Laos, the Communist-led rebels seem to be trying to compel the Boun Oum government to treat them as victors and accept them as the effective government in Laos.

Top Administration leaders are known to be deeply concerned about the increasingly belligerent attitude of the Communist bloc toward the United States.

Some here fear that the failure of the American-backed rebel invasion of Cuba plus Kennedy's reluctance to become involved in war in Southeast Asia may be taken as evidence of weakness and indecision on the part of the Washington government.

AGREE ON REPORT

NEW DELHI, April 29 (AP)—The Laos Control Commission agreed today on a report to Britain and the Soviet Union on the way it will verify a ceasefire when it comes in Laos.

The commission announced it hoped to transmit the report to London and Moscow on Monday.

Britain and the Soviet Union as chairmen of the 1954 Geneva Conference which established the commission will then give it instructions to go to Laos to supervise and control a ceasefire.

HARRIMAN ARRIVES

VIENTIANE, April 29 (UPI) — U.S. Roving Ambassador Averell Harriman arrived here today to make a study of the Laotian situation for President Kennedy.

Harriman said he would fly to Luang Prabang tomorrow to meet with Premier Boun Oum.

Harriman said he would remain in Laos for a "couple of days."

Raiders Burn Anti-N Camp

DUNOON, Scotland, April 29 (UPI) — Pre-dawn attackers today burned and looted the camp of two anti-nuclear demonstrators on the banks of the Holy Loch today.

Pacifist Gordon Collins, 20, said he was "severely beaten" by the "four or five" adults who swept down on the camp near the anchorage of the USS Proteus, a tender for American nuclear-powered Polaris submarines.

His companion, Ruth Townsend, 23, said she was "very roughly handled" and had received "a very severe kick." Collins said the attackers told them to "get out of Scotland."

Kitty Hawk Joins U.S. Fleet

PHILADELPHIA, April 29 (AP)—The huge aircraft carrier Kitty Hawk joined the U.S. Navy today. It is the Navy's fourth supercarrier of the Forrestal class.

The 60,000-ton Kitty Hawk, one of the largest ship afloat, carries no mounted guns and is the only warship in the Navy with this distinction.

Instead, she protects herself with surface-to-air Terrier guided missiles fired from launchers at the stern of the ship and able to home in on attacking planes. The $250 million Kitty Hawk is 1,047 feet long and rises 25 stories high.

Chicago Blaze Kills 5 Children

CHICAGO, April 29 (AP) — Five children were burned to death early today when fire swept through a three-story tenement building.

Mrs Marion Coleman identified the victims as her children Anita, 12; Bernell, 11; Francine, 8, Darlene, 5, and Eric, 5.

Mrs Coleman said she left the children with a babysitter while she went out and returned to find firemen carrying their bodies from the burning building.

Dependents To Fly U. S. Flag Carriers

WASHINGTON, April 29 (AP) — after May 15 U.S. federal government employees and their dependents will have to travel on U.S. airlines when the government foots the bill, Senator Warren G. Magnuson (D., Wash.), said here.

Magnuson, chairman of the Senate Commerce Committee, said the decision followed his appeal to President Kennedy.

Brandt Hits Letter

BERLIN, April 29 (AP) — Mayor Willy Brandt's office has denounced as a Communist forgery letters sent out on his stationery announcing the departure of allied troops from Berlin.

HELLO, KNIGHT! — Young Frank D'Angelo greets an old friend at Soave fortress near Verona. Frank had met him before in books. Now he sees him in the flesh — or in the tin. Frank seems unafraid.

EVEN A CASTLE NEEDS A WISHING WELL — Teacher Nancy Squatrito shows her young students how to make a wish in a battle-scarred fortress. Six centuries of wishes have echoed down this well. The students (left to right) are Danny De Noux, Karen Akana, Brenda Guilford, Roger Congress Linda Smith and Billy Gard.

SETAF'S YOUNGSTERS VIEW FORT — Second graders from SETAF's Riverside School walk along battlements of ancient Soave fortress. Leading them into the past is Miss Nancy Squatrito, their teacher. The castle, complete with dungeons for the bad guys, was built in the 14th Century. The well-preserved fortress lies between Verona and Vicenza. It was used by the Scaligeri family to ward off repeated invasions. These seven-year-olds can almost hear the arrows whistle by.
